PROGRESS IN FORESTRY WORK

Forester Hohmer's report for the month of May was made today. He says in part:

"On May 9, at the request of the trustees of the Bishop Estate, I visited lands belonging to them at Kaneohe, Oahu, subsequently submitting a brief report recommending a forest boundary and outlining a program of tree planting for a portion of the tract. Trip to Hawaii.

"From May 17 to 31 I was on the Island of Hawaii, engaged on a general inspection trip that included an examination of the condition of the forest in the Kau Forest Reserve, a visit to the Hilo nursery in charge of Brother Matthias Newell, where about 10,000 seedling trees of various kinds were seen, awaiting distribution; an inspection of the tree planting now in progress on waste lands of the Hawaiian Agricultural Company's sugar plantation at Pahala, and also the said property owners segregate such garbage collected, by placing the unburnable stuff in one container and the burnable in another.
D. KALAUOKALANI, JR.,
Clerk, City and County of Honolulu.
5265-5t

"The tree planting at Pahala is especially to be commended as being just the sort of work which this division has been persistently advocating for a number of years—the utilization of gulch sides and other waste areas not adapted for sugar cane, by the planting of trees useful for fuel or wood. Eucalyptus robusta and E. globulus are the trees that have mostly been planted. Along some of the roads and about the newer laborers' camps lines of shelter belts of these and other trees have been set out. The work is receiving not a little of the personal attention of Mr. W. G. Ogg, manager of the Pahala plantation, who has become an enthusiastic tree planter.

"The tree planting at Waimea is being done under a contract entered into last year between this department and Mr. A. W. Carter. Some forty odd acres of eucalyptus robusta have been set out. The trees are spaced six feet apart, 1210 to the acre. The stand is in excellent condition, only a very small percentage of the seedlings set out having died. Under the contract Mr. Carter furnished the seedlings from the Parker Ranch nursery at Waimea. This forest plantation is now being extended by him on the fee simple land of Waialeale, owned by the ranch. In all there will be planted a considerable block of forest.

Work at Government Nursery.
"The routine report of the forest nurseryman, transmitted herewith, gives the details of the work carried on at the government nursery and the Makiki station during the month.

New Circular.
"During the month a new circular of the Division of Forestry has been issued, No. 2, entitled 'Instructions for Propagating Forest, Shade and Ornamental Trees,' by David Haighs, forest nurseryman. This circular is a revision and enlargement of an earlier press bulletin. It contains practical directions about various sorts of tree planting. Copies may be had free upon request."

WATERFRONT NOTES

Venerable Revenue Cutter May Be Sold.
SEATTLE, Wash., May 29. — The revenue cutter Rush, which has been on duty in Alaska waters, arrived in port last night to undergo inspection and temporary repairs before proceeding to San Francisco, where a Board of Survey will examine the vessel with a view to condemning her and offering her for sale. The Rush, which is the oldest American-built revenue cutter of the first class, has been in service twenty-seven years and has outlived her usefulness.
While cruising off the Alaska Coast recently, the bulkheads between the vessel's engines and the boilers gave way, necessitating her return to Seattle.

Little, But There with the Goods.
What is said to be the smallest steamer to take a cargo out of Portland for the Orient is the Norwegian steamer Opland, which has just been chartered by the China Import and Export Lumber Company to load lumber for China. The little steamer is only 844 tons, net register, and will take out about 1,000,000 feet of lumber.

The collier Nero, carrying Government wireless experts, sailed from Mare Island on May 20, for Alaska, carrying nearly $100,000 worth of wireless telegraph supplies. A large station will be installed at Unalga. The men will be absent until November.
